

halt, but with God all things will become alive, new thinking will flow and we become optimistic.

An optimistic person sees opportunities in every dangerous situation, but a pessimistic person always sees the danger in an opportunity. (Proverbs 18:14).

perhaps a progress that is not yet evident, but trust in the Lord who is able to do greater things that we could ever think about. (Hebrew 11:32).

- All our victories and achievements have made us stronger in our walk towards the Lord in the Zion and to glorify Him with everything we have, just like king David and king Salomon.

(1 Samuel 17:46-47, Proverbs 3:9).

A letter from the Pastor

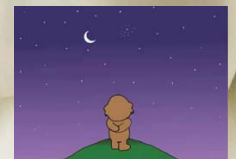

Best wishes in Christ from the Pastors and children who are still in Indonesia. Once again, we are thankful that God has blessed a few of our ministries in Surabaya, in particular in the GBU Rock church and God has been using Joy and Jessica in their testimony through praise and worshipping, so that a lot of people were blessed by the Lord. All the CDs from JJs are sold out and according to God's will that she has in her heart, the proceeds of the sales of these CDs will be channelled to the fund of the purchase of the FMC church in Delft. With regard to my mother's situation, she is getting better and is discharged from the hospital. Let us keep on praying that God will also be working continuously in FMC. God bless you.

Best wishes and prayers
the Pastors

MOVING FORWARD

by: Rev. Victor D. Faraknimella (Senior Pastor)

INTRODUCTION

The year 2010 is the year of progress for the whole FMC congregation including you. To stay intact with this particular promise of God, let us read from Psalm 84 : 5-8.

CONTENT

1. Be happy

On this Earth men are trying to search for happiness, be it by starting a family, a word of congratulation is some kind of words of hope. But let's give thanks to the Lord that He had given His assurance of happiness to:

- a. those who remain in the house of God (residing as part of God's congregation) who praise God continuously; It means for those who believe and worship God, their mouth is filled with praises and not mumble, anger and gossip;
- b. those whose have strength is in the Lord and who are desire for a pilgrimage. It means a life that relying on God and a desire to seek God, one who is willing to abide in God's Word and seeking God's guidance on what should one do.

2. The everlasting valley

In one's walk of life or in order to make progress, surely there are calm and easy ways, but sometimes we will encounter an everlasting valley, a valley full of darkness or facing big challenges. But if we are behave ourselves as what is written in point 1a eand 1b, than we will see and experience what seems to be impossible will become possible. The everlasting valley, or death, death end and everything seem to be put on
